MESSAGE FROM ACTORS THEATRE

Thank you for joining us for the 10th Annual Lobster Feast: Lobster Feast 2012– Escape to Key West!

Key West, much like the theatre, is a magical and diverse place; home of Ernest Hemingway, Sloppy Joes, six toed cats and Fantasy Fest; and both offer an escape from the everyday, a chance to see another world. We hope that while you are here you will feel transported to another world.

Your support for this evening and throughout the season is what makes Actors Theatre an integral part of our community and a world-class theatre. The money raised from Lobster Feast supports our annual operating budget, which enables us to offer a sustainable and artistically nurturing space for artists as well as serve students across the region with our educational programs. From our Brown-Forman Series to our New Voices Young Playwrights Festival, Actors Theatre is committed to harnessing the wealth of creative resources under our roof and sharing them throughout our region with people of all ages and backgrounds. We accomplish this by offering a variety of programming, a range of ticket prices and outstanding artistic experiences. Without the support of donors like you, none of this would be possible.

A sincere thank you also to our wonderful Lobster Feast Chairs Bill and Barbara Juckett and our hard working committee, who gave us their talent, creativity and free time to make sure this year’s Lobster Feast is magical.

We’re delighted that you have chosen to spend your evening with us.

Les Waters, Artistic Director

Jennifer Bielstein, Managing Director

MESSAGE FROM EVENT CHAIRS BARBARA AND BILL JUCKETT

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 10th Annual Lobster Feast: Lobster Feast 2012 – Escape to Key West! Over the last ten years this signature fundraiser for Actors Theatre of Louisville has gained the reputation as one of the biggest and most fun fundraisers of the year! What’s not to enjoy with all-you-can-eat lobster, Herradura Tequila, casual attire, a high energy crowd bidding and dancing the night away - all in the middle of winter!

We thank you for your generosity, especially tonight, and remind you that all monies raised will allow Actors Theatre to continue to serve the community with quality theatre that allows people of all ages to celebrate, challenge and explore who we are through the stories performed on our stages.

We have enjoyed co-chairing Lobster Feast 2012 and want to thank all of the committee chairs, the Actors Theatre development staff and the many volunteers for all their hard work and dedication to making this evening a huge success! We also want to thank our Actors Theatre Board members for continuing to embrace this event as an important component in helping Actors Theatre reach its annual fundraising goals! We have learned so much from all of you and feel proud to have been part of this incredible team effort!

Thank you as well to our corporate sponsors and corporate table sponsors - your support means so much. Finally, we want to thank all of you for being here, for enjoying all the lobster you care to eat and for actively bidding to play your part in launching our beloved Actors Theatre into 2012 on strong financial footing!

Best always,

Barbara and Bill Juckett
Co-Chairs, Actors Theatre Lobster Feast 2012

PS. Extra special thanks to my husband Bill for being by my side as we planned tonight's Escape to Key West!

LIVE AND SILENT AUCTION RULES

1. Each item in the silent auctions has a bid sheet with it on the auction table. Persons desiring to bid may do so by writing in their bid number (given to you at registration and on the back of your catalog) and the amount bid on the bid sheet. Use only the bid number assigned to you.
2. Each new bid must be written on the next blank line available on the bid sheet. Bids will be disqualified if the minimum raise is not sufficient.
3. The Silent Auction 1: Bid Local and Silent Auction 2: Wine will be open for bidding from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The Silent Auction Section 3: Fantasy Collection will be open from 6:30 p.m. and closing 15 minutes after the live auction ends. Closing times are listed in the catalog and will be announced throughout the evening. Only an authorized official may nullify a bid, and the closing bid circled by the official constitutes a winning bid.
4. In the event of a dispute, the auction official shall act as the final authority and shall determine the winning bidder. In the event that two bidders are in the process of bidding on the same item when the official attempts to circle the winning bid, the official may conduct a mini live auction between those two bidders. The official shall determine the winning bidder and his/her decision shall be final.
5. Bidders can determine if they have winning bids by checking the bid sheet 15 minutes after the auction closes at check out. The winning bidder will check out and pay the cashier. The cashier will be open at 9 p.m.
6. Use your catalog as your bid paddle for the live auction.
7. Any winning bidder not making arrangements for payment on the night of the auction may forfeit his/her right to purchase the item.
8. Unless otherwise specified, auction items and services must be used within one year from the date of the auction. Unless otherwise specified, dates and time are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of and by and between the donor and buyer. To avoid disappointment, please make all vacation reservations well in advance. Security and cleaning deposits, when required by the donor, must be paid directly to the donor and are not included in your bid.
9. Values set forth opposite some items are estimates only and are not warranted for tax purposes or for general value. All sales are final and no exchange or refund will be honored unless specifically indicated.

This wine collection is a well-rounded addition to any cellar or the perfect starter collection.

A beautiful handmade wooden wine rack that holds 144 bottles has already been filled with 72 bottles (6 cases) of highly rated wines from around the world. 12 bottles each of:

- Edna Valley Chardonnay from San Luis Obispo County
- Acrobat Pinot Noir from Oregon
- Michele Chiarlo Barbera d'Asti from Italy
- Louis Martini Cabernet Sauvignon, from Alexander Valley
- Castle Rock Pinot Noir from California's Central Coast
- Michel Picard Cotes du Rhone from France

These fabulous wines could be the start of a home wine cellar or add to the one you have. The wine rack is already assembled and the wines are ready to drink.

Donors: Fran and Matt Thornton and Actors Theatre of Louisville

Item L08TEN DAYS UNDER THE TUSCAN SUN

The ultimate Tuscan getaway! Stay three nights at La Petraia an agriturismo farm located in Radda in Chianti in the heart of Tuscany, Italy. Luxury accommodations are provided in a private suite of a 12th century villa that has been lovingly restored by Italian artisans. At the heart of La Petraia is its organic farm which will be the source for your meals and provide the ingredients for your cooking class. The estate includes vineyards, olive and heirloom fruit trees, vegetable gardens and an ancient chestnut grove. The owners also raise a variety of animals and produce their own varietal honeys.

While you're in Chianti, you'll tour the historic Castello di Brolio Castle, creator of the original formula for the region's most famous wines, Chianti Classico. Built in the 11th century by the famed Ricasoli family. Today, it continues as the home to the Barone Francesco Ricasoli, who runs the award-winning wine business, Castello di Brolio and has overseen the development of the award-winning winery, arms museum and onsite restaurant, the Osteria. Your day at Brolio will include a tour of the winery, family quarters in the Castle, arms museum and a delicious, multi-course, regional lunch and wines for two, in The Osteria.

The final week of your stay in Tuscany will be at Le Palaie, another agriturismo farm in Tuscany, halfway between Florence and Pisa. You'll enjoy the peace and quiet of the Tuscan countryside from your quarters in an ancient but modernly appointed stone farmhouse. Here you'll be surrounded by vineyards and olive groves and views that put you in the center of a landscape portrait of Tuscany. The one bedroom apartment has its own kitchen, flat screen TV and WIFI access. A pool and tennis courts complete the experience. Live like a native by shopping in the local markets or enjoying the local restaurants in the area. It's conveniently located for day trips to Forte dei Marme, Pisa, Lucca, Florence or hop on the train and discover many other sights in Italy.

Dates will be mutually decided upon. Travel not included

Donors: Ted and Mary Nixon and Barone Francesco Ricasoli

Item L09PRIVATE DINNER PARTY FOR EIGHT IN THE HOME OF MIKE AND BETH KEYES

Former Actors Theatre Board Chair and Brown Forman's President of the North American Region, Mike Keyes and his wife, Beth, invite you and friends for a fantastic dinner party hosted at one of Louisville's most historic homes, the Hurstbourne Lyndon Cottage which sits adjacent to the Hurstbourne Country Club.

Brown-Forman Executive Chef Mark Williams, who also serves as Regional Governor for Slow Food USA, will prepare an unforgettable dinner for you and your guests. Tim Laird, Brown-Forman's CEO (Chief Entertaining Officer) will create a unique signature cocktail for this exclusive event and he will be there to present wines that will be specially paired with dinner.

Must be scheduled by July 29, 2012, date subject to all availability.

Donors: Mike and Beth Keyes, Chef Mark Williams, Tim Laird

Item L10DERBY DAY HANDICAPPING EXPERTISE

Nationally recognized horse racing experts Tom Aronson and Mary Midkiff will entertain and educate your brunch guests or at other Kentucky Derby events to help you and your guests pick winners for Derby Day. Their horse knowledge and handicapping expertise will round out your corporate event or private party on Derby eve or morning. Commentary will have an emphasis on the 138th Run for the Roses including a rundown of the day's program, tips on the horses and jockeys and insider anecdotes that will inform and amuse! Don't let your guests head to Churchill Downs without a winning attitude – a sure bet to make your event a WINNER!

Donors: Tom Aronson and Mary Midkiff

Item L11HUMANA’S FINISH LINE SUITE FOR 20

The historic renovation of Churchill Downs was designed to make it Kentucky’s most significant and luxurious landmark. The second phase of renovation produced the elegant Finish Line Suites, which offer an opportunity for hospitality unrivaled by any other sporting facility in the world. The exclusive suites provide a beautiful, private setting with incomparable views of Churchill Downs and the Louisville skyline, and are situated directly above the racetrack’s finish line. Each suite includes concierge service, wet bar, in-suite food and beverage service, self-service wagering machine, cable and closed-circuit television, telephone, temperature control, restroom, and coat closet. Guests can enjoy live racing and the panoramic view of Churchill Downs from a private double balcony, as well as the facility’s outdoor veranda. Take in a front-row view of all the excitement on the famous final stretch – arguably the best seat in Louisville.

The Humana Finish Line Suite must be scheduled during the upcoming 2012 Spring Meet and is subject to availability. (Festival Day, 4/28; Oaks Day, 5/4; and Derby Day 5/5 are not available.)

IN THE NEXT ROOM OR THE VIBRATOR PLAY
JANUARY 24– FEBRUARY 4

by Sarah Ruhl
directed by Laura Gordon

Ruhl's Tony-nominated play is an exploration of love, longing and science in a time of invention and discovery. In a 19th century home, a doctor's new treatment for "hysteria" is capturing everyone's attention, including that of his wife. As she overhears his patients' sessions in the next room, they awaken feelings of her own—but can Mrs. Givings break through the wall between minds and hearts, husbands and wives? This thought-provoking, funny and touching play about marriage and intimacy is sure to be the buzz of the city!

36TH ANNUAL HUMANA FESTIVAL OF NEW AMERICAN PLAYS
FEBRUARY 26– APRIL 15

The Humana Festival of New American Plays is the leading event of its kind, launching new plays into the national spotlight—right in your backyard! Catch groundbreaking works that represent many generations, many voices and many views, including yours. The festival runs the gamut from comedies to dramas to plays that forge new theatrical territory. Combined with world-class design and performances, this celebration of American playwrights' innovation and imagination has something in it for everyone.

OUR PURPOSE

Because Actors Theatre values collaboration, creativity and the wide range of human experience, we bring people together through live theatre to celebrate, challenge and explore who we are.
